Re: 2015 CHDO Certification

IHCDA will now be implementing a deadline for HOME Community Housing Development Organization (CHDO) annual certifications. Applications for 2015 CHDO Certifications will be due Wednesday, April 1st, 2015 with approval letters sent out by Tuesday, May 26th, 2015. You must have received a certification approval letter prior to the time you submit a HOME application if you wish to be considered a CHDO for the 2015 HOME Application Rounds. If you intend to apply for the HOME Preservation of Affordable Housing or Homebuyer rounds, there will be a checkbox in the application to select notifying IHCDA that you will be submitting your CHDO certification application by April 1st. Each CHDO must be certified every year.

An informational webinar about the CHDO Certification process will be held on Wednesday, February 11th, 2015 at 2:00pm in conjunction with the HOME Application webinar for Preservation of Affordable Housing and Homebuyer rounds.
